LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WILL MEDINA COUNTY HOLD PRIMARIES?

County Chairman D. H. Fly of the County Democratic Executive Committee informs the Anvil Herald that the Committee has only a few dollars in its treasury—not enough to furnish ballots and supplies for the first primary July 26 and the second primary in August.

Such being the case, if any primaries are held there must be voluntary contributions from patriotic Democrats of sufficient funds for this purpose. Then, as heretofore, if the primaries are held, there must be volunteers in each precinct to serve free of charge as election officers to hold the elections.

This is requiring much in the way of patriotic service, but inasmuch as the primary elections are equivalent to election in Texas, it must be done or the Democratic voters will be virtually disfranchised in Medina County.

The chairman suggests that precinct chairmen, or other interested parties, get busy in each precinct and arrange for these officers to hold the election and if any one wishes to donate any cash towards defraying the necessary expenses they can send or hand their contributions to him.

If you do not want the primary to go by default and our county have no voice in the selection of state and district officers, act at once on the above suggestions.

BATOT-SCHMIDT WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Adeline Schmidt of Del Rio and Mr. Henry Batot, Jr., of Hondo, Texas, was solemnized at St. Joseph's church of San Antonio, Tuesday, June 10, 1930, with Reverend Leopold officiating. The bridal party was as follows:

Miss Katherine Weyl and Miss Mathilda Jungman, bridesmaids, who were charmingly dressed in blue and pink, respectively, while a lovely shade of green added to the loveliness of Miss Ivez Dielman, maid of honor. Jonell Bendele and Bernell Bomba, dressed to imitate pink rose buds, made lovely little flower girls, while Hugh Bendele, bravely carried the ring up the aisle on a little white satin pillow. Travis Pruitt and Joe Meyer were groomsmen and Wildon Batot, best man.

After the ceremony, a lovely breakfast was served in the rose room at the Menger Hotel. The room was attractively decorated with pink rose buds and a beautiful wedding cake as the center-piece.

The following were present at breakfast: Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Weyland, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Converse, Mesdames Albert Bendele, E. C. Pruitt, Frank Steinle, C. A. Michael, Misses Etta Batot, Claudia Michael, Estella Spahn and Henry Batot, Sr., and Hugo Batot.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Batot, Jr., left after breakfast on a motor trip. They will be at home in Hondo, Texas, after June 24.

DR. SMITH PRESIDES AT LION'S MEETING; THEY WERE THERE.

Who? County Commissioners Buss and Tondre. They gave the Lions an insight into the work being done to improve our County roads, as well as into the plans for continued work, and the difficulties connected therewith. They assured the citizenship they would do all in their power to meet all just expectations and demands of the various communities in the County. "Make funds available and we will go the limit in building good roads,"—that was the challenge issued to the citizens of Medina County. How are we going to meet that challenge?

Mr. Fletcher Davis, Editor of the Hondo Anvil Herald, was there and he spoke highly, not only of the chicken dinner served, but also of the organized interest in good roads, a necessity for the full development of our town and county.

Practically every Lion was there. And they will want to be there at the next two meetings. The next meeting will coincide with the annual charter night program, to be held probably next Wednesday, June 25.

The meeting on June 30 will be dominated by a slogan suggested by Mr. Davis: "Hondo, a good marketing place." Local buyers of Medina County products will be requested to be present to advise how to make that slogan a reality. We expect this "get-together" to have far-reaching effects on the business of Hondo. Several of the business men present divulged a plan to inaugurate a monthly "Trades Day" in the near future. Watch the announcements in the Anvil Herald.

And Dr. Smith was there. He handled the "gavel" as if it were his second nature. We may expect a successful Lion's year under his leadership. Wonder whether there aren't some more Hondo men who should join the club for the upbuilding of Hondo and Medina County?

LADIES BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. O. M. Miller was hostess for three tables of bridge at her home Thursday afternoon of last week. The lovely rooms were enhanced with vases of colorful sweet peas and fern. After several games of bridge prizes were awarded to the winners. Mrs. Horace Bradley won high score for club members meriting a silver cold meat fork; Mrs. O. B. Taylor, as a member cutting for consolation, won an unusual ice bucket. For guests, Mrs. W. H. Smith won high score prize, a china cream and sugar set and Mrs. Bradford of San Antonio cut for a dainty handkerchief.

A delectable plate lunch consisting of pimento cheese layer sandwiches, salad topped with whipped cream, potato chips, crackers, Angel Food cake and spiced tea was served to the following ladies: Mesdames Horace Bradley, L. E. Heath, John Finger, Earl Starnes, R. W. Speece, Earl Boon, O. B. Taylor, W. H. Smith, Frank Schweers, Bradford, Ed Cameron, Ralph Noonan, and the hostess, Mrs. Miller.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE.

Hens in second laying year for sale at reduced prices, your chance to start with a good flock of chickens at 1-10 of what the same blood lines cost me. GREEN HILL POULTRY FARM, G. W. Muennink, Prop. 43-44

TEXAS AND TEXANS

TEXAS AND TEXANS.

By Will H. Mayes.

"All Texans for All Texas"

Too Much Politics

Business in Texas is suffering from an epidemic of politics and the press is helping to spread the disease by giving the politicians too much free publicity. A hotel proprietor recently told me that he wished he could close his hotel until after the primaries. He admitted that the hotels perhaps suffer less than any other business in heated campaigns, but said that the increased political patronage was more than offset by the loss of commercial business. There is more street-corner idling in Texas now than in the most serious unemployment days. If it were confined to white-collar loafers the situation might not be so bad, but all classes seem to have been bitten by the political bug. One never hears the question "How's business?" but the greeting invariably is "How's politics?"

Still Talking Texas

An editor who publishes this feature every week and who thereby proves that he thinks it worth while, has asked "why don't you devote some of your space to politics?" The reason is that this writer believes more in Texas than in Texas politics and thinks that one paragraph about building of a new factory, success with a farm crop, opening a city park or playground, starting a public library or any other constructive news is worth more to the readers of Texas newspapers than all the political guesses. Some people sincerely think that the weal or woe of the country is bound up in the election or defeat of certain candidates, but a comment about a new bridge in your country is of more importance to you than anything this or any other writer could say about any of the candidates. That is why he prefers to "Talk Texas."

Texas Oil Wells

Oil development in Texas is steadily going on. In May 442 wells were brought in as producers, an increase of 94 over April. There were 250 dry holes. Thirty-one new gas wells were reported. These producing oil and gas wells are distributed in some 50 counties of the State. Oil field men are not taking off much time for politics, it may be guessed.

Trinity River Improvement

Owners of Trinity river valley lands, and the cities along the river are getting much interested in the canalization of the river from its mouth to Fort Worth. Many reasons enter into consideration—navigation, irrigation, reclamation, power, increased productivity and reduced freight rates are among these.

Texas Population

Texas will show a population of approximately 5,700,000 in the census returns. This growth has come about without any great exploitation. There has been no ballyhooing of the kind used by some States to attract population, but the growth has been gradual and steady. Really Texas has been too modest in proclaiming its resources and its possibilities. The State is rounding out its first centenary and should use that as a basis for showing the world what great achievement can be brought about within the short period of 100 years.

Summer School Growth

The Southwest Texas State Teachers College has a summer school enrollment of approximately 2,000, or a number that nearly equals half the population of San Marcos, where the school is located. While this large enrollment is in part due to the able faculty of the school, a still larger part of the credit is because of the splendid reputation of the little city for the hospitality of its people and the general attractiveness of the school surroundings. It is hard to estimate what a drawing power such a combination of people and location have.

Marketing Cantaloupes

An Asherton cantaloupe grower who is marketing 250 acres of cantaloupes, says that although the melons are of better quality, have greater sugar content and can be moved to market at less cost than California cantaloupes, they are harder to sell. This is due to lack of systematic grading, packing and labeling of the Texas melons. California melons must measure up to required sugar content, and this gives buyers greater confidence. Individual growers in Texas are up against the necessity of convincing buyers that they have a superior product, while the California label is all that is required. Texas should take steps to overcome this disadvantage.

Santa Fe to Sonora

The Santa Fe extension of the old Orient line will be completed to Sonora and train service will begin to that point by July 1. This service includes the towns of Eldorado and Christoval, and Eldorado is preparing for a big July 4 celebration in which all that part of Texas will participate. It is a great country with a wonderful spirit of co-operative enterprise and the event will be one long to be remembered.

Cost of Eggs

The Luling Foundation Farm, managed by that capable farmer, Jack Shelton, has been making a helpful test of the feed cost of eggs. From January 1 to May 1, 10,189 dozen eggs were produced, the feed cost being 12.9 cents a dozen, figuring the feed at market prices. Corn and milo maize were used as the principal scratch grains. Laying mash was kept before the hens at all times, with a plentiful supply of skim milk. The hens had access to green pasture except in the extreme cold of January.

Milam County Grapes

A number of Milam County farmers are growing grapes in sufficient quantities for carload shipments and the business promises to be highly successful. The grapes are ready for market ahead of California grapes and command good prices. Much of the sandy land of Texas is adaptable to grape culture.

Numbers Not So Much

The Brady Standard is not especially proud of the fact that Brady has a population of 3,923, which is an increase of 1,726 since 1920. The Standard says that the town could get rid of at least the 923 and be a better town. The truth is, if Brady is like most other towns, 923 hand-picked people would be better than the total of 3,923. Most of the worthwhile things in every town are done by comparatively few people.

Cottulla's Growth

This writer had a letter recently from a Cottulla friend saying that Cottulla is a good town, but that it grows too slowly. Yet the census figures show that without any boom of any kind the place has increased 195 per cent since 1920 and now has a population of 3,169. This starts me wondering just what that friend has been expecting of his town.

Brazos River Overflows

The State should interest itself in the project to improve the Brazos river valley. This for selfish reasons, if for no other. The loss of cotton this year from the recent overflow will be approximately 1,000 bales and the damage already done to the farm crops is estimated at $1,400,000. The loss last year was about the same. The total investment in State prison farms is only slightly in excess of $2,500,000, the entire farm values being wiped out in two years by the overflows. The Brazos river water project would stop all this loss, besides the almost incalculable loss to private landowners of the valley. Drainage and irrigation will quickly change certain losses to certain profits.

Roads and Streets

The Rockdale Reporter is proud as a peacock of the 15 miles of concrete highway just finished in that county and of the improved Rockdale streets, which it proclaims as "the most miles of fine streets in any Texas town" of like population. The first question asked every visitor is, "How do you like our roads and streets?" and the answer is certain to appear in the Reporter. Rockdale has many things of which to be proud, the Reporter being one of these.

LOCAL CHAPTER ELECTS.

Dr. O. B. Taylor, King.
Horace Bradley, Treasurer.

MUCH OF INTEREST TO WOMEN AT MEDINA SHORT COURSE.

A program of unusual merit has been prepared for women and girls at the South Texas Short Course and Encampment at the Medina Herford Ranch in Bexar County, July 16 to 18. That the subjects to be presented possess a feminine appeal may be judged by reviewing some of the titles as prepared by the women specialists in the A. & M. Extension Service. "Salads," "Inexpensive Improvements for the Home," "Chair Coverings," "Styles in Clothing," "Marketing 4-H Club Products" and "How to Make Money from Poultry" are subjects of practical value to the housewife and her daughter.

At the same time the mother is getting the "protective diet" straight, father will be mastering the technique of balancing old Bossie's ration, son will be learning to bud pecans and daughter will be learning to make and judge butter. In other words, this Short Course is an all-around family affair with plenty to keep all interested and on their toes every minute.

Further, it is an encampment, meaning that folks come with their bedding, cooking utensils, much of their food, and a willingness to rough it for a few days. As a camping ground it has been thoroughly tried out for years and found high, safe and dry. The weeds have been pastured down and water piped for the convenience of the scores of families of campers expected to be there. The place is eighteen miles west of San Antonio on the Castroville Road, and two miles south. County and home demonstration agents will have the detailed programs within a few days.

RANCHER'S ROUNDUP POSTPONED.

Announcement is made by A. B. Conner, Director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, that the Annual Ranchmen's Roundup usually held during the month of August at the Ranch Experiment Station near Sonora, will be postponed until next year. The Ranchmen's Roundup is held under the auspices of the Ranch Experiment Station, the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association of Texas, and other interested ranchmen of the Edwards Plateau region.

Inasmuch as needed improvements under way at the Ranch Station will not only provide better equipment for the work, but better facilities for the Roundup at a later date, it was decided to defer this meeting until next year and bend every effort toward having the biggest and best meeting in 1931 ever held in the ranch country. The Station is exerting every effort to thoroughly equip a veterinary Laboratory in order to be in position to make more rapid progress in the study of sheep and goat disease problems of importance to the region. In view of these conditions and the further fact that numerous other events and meetings will be held this year, it seems advisable to take this action in preparation for more effective work by the Ranch Experiment Station, and better facilities for holding the meeting in 1931.

After the First

Twenty-five Thousand Miles

THE VALUE of sound design, good materials and careful craftsmanship is especially apparent in the new Ford after the first twenty-five thousand miles. Long, continuous service emphasizes its mechanical reliability and economy of operation and up-keep.

As you drive the Ford through many months and years you will develop an increasing pride in its appearance and a growing respect for the substantial worth that has been built into it. From every standpoint—in everything that goes to make a good automobile—you will know that you have made a far-seeing, satisfactory purchase.

Wherever you go, you hear enthusiastic praise of the car and this significant, oft-repeated phrase—"I'm glad I bought a Ford."

A FORD owner in New York tells of a 13,000-mile trip across the United States and back in sixty days and says "the car was extremely economical to operate, comfortable and speedy." A grateful father tells how the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield saved his wife and children from serious injury.

To test tires, a large company drove a new Ford day and night, for an average of 500 miles every twenty-four hours. It was still giving satisfactory service after 105,000 miles.

A Ford car that had fallen into Fernan Lake was submerged for twelve days before being raised. After a new battery and carburetor bowl were installed, it was driven back to Spokane under its own power.

Many police departments have written of the special advantages of the Ford in crowded traffic because of its alert speed, acceleration, and ease of control. An increasing number of fleet owners are also purchasing the Ford because their cost figures have given conclusive proof of its economy of operation and up-keep.

In addition to important triumphs in Germany, France and Italy, the Ford won six out of seven leading places in a contest in Finland, first and second in the Rafaela races in Argentina, first and second in the run from Copenhagen-to-Paris-to-Copenhagen, three gold medals in England, first ranking in the durability test over the tortuous Amancaes road in Peru, and first place in the 1930 reliability run conducted by the Royal Automobile Club of Sweden.

This contest was an exceptionally severe test of endurance and sturdy construction because it was held in the dead of winter and covered 600 miles of steady running over snow-covered country roads and mountainous hills.

ZEN of the Y. D.

of Novel of the Foothills

By ROBERT STEAD

Author of "The Cow Puncher" and "The Homesteaders" and "Neighbors," etc.

"Some trinket Transley sent out," explained. "He'll be here himself as soon as business permits."

She took the package with a glow of expectancy, started to open it then concern than if a steer had been lost from the herd. "Transley said to tell you Drazk had disappeared and he reckoned you wouldn't be bothered any more with him."

She Took the Package With a Glow of Expectancy.

"Drakz was nothing to me," she managed to say. "How can you think he was?"

"Now who said he was?" her father retorted. "For a young woman with the price of a herd of steers on her third finger you're sort o' short this mornin'. Now I'm jus' wonderin' how far you can see through a board fence, Zen. Are you surprised that Drakz has disappeared?"

She was entirely at a loss to understand the drift of her father's talk. He could not connect her with Drakz's disappearance, or he would not approach the matter with such unconcern. That was unthinkable. Neither could Transley, or he would not have sent so brutal a message. And yet it was clear that they thought she should be interested.

Her father's question demanded an answer.

"What should I care?" she ventured at length.

"I didn't ask you whether you cared. I asked you whether you were surprised."

"Drakz's movements were — are nothing to me. I don't know that I have any occasion to be surprised about anything he may do."

"Well, I'm rather glad you're not, because if you don't jump to conclusions, perhaps other people won't. Not that it makes any particular difference."

"Dad," she cried in desperation, "whatever do you mean?"

"It was all plain enough to me, and plain enough to Transley," her father continued with remarkable calmness. "We seen it right from the first."

"You're talking in riddles, Y.D.," his wife remonstrated. "You're getting Zen all worked up."

Mild and mellow

Smokers:

Test this for yourself:

VELVET Smoking Tobacco is different—different in aroma, different in flavor. It is an all 'round tobacco for pipe and cigarette—note the cut, just right for rolling.

Say what you please, there is nothing that mellows leaf tobacco like ageing in wooden casks for two years or more.

If you roll your own, you'll find in every tin of VELVET the makings of about 50 of the best cigarettes you ever smoked. VELVET tobacco is made and cut just exactly right for rolling.

If you prefer to smoke a pipe, then here's a tobacco that hits the mark.

Test it out for yourself!

The Anvil Herald family was favored by a brief visit last Sunday from Mr. Joseph C. Collins and Miss Garnet Stringer of San Antonio. The young people were accompanied by Miss Stringer's mother and foster-father, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morris-son. Both the young people can converse audibly but an affection of the auditory nerves has rendered them both deaf, and they use both the finger and lip reading systems of the deaf for conversing. Mr. Collins is an efficient linotype operator, despite his inability to hear, and went from this shop a few years ago to Washington to complete his education. He now has a responsible job with a big printing firm in Austin.

A number of little folks gathered at the home of Mrs. Emil Heyen were served to the following: Evelyn Barkuloo, Jerline and Doris Jean Stiegler, Evelyn and Jerline Haeglin, Thelma Lee Saathoff, Frances and Mary Louise Haegelin, Lillian and Virginia Moehring, Elma Westfall, Susie Muennink, Jonell Bader and La Verne and Shirley June Ulbrich.

REV. J. T. HORGNER, Author

thoroughly discussed in this Book, this Book. It is different, it is inter-become so distinct, so clear and so esting, it brings out new lines of unmistakably evident, that it would thought. It is great for the Preacher seem, to use a Bible phrase, "The in building sermons. It furnishes a wayfaring men, though fools, shall new chain of thought throughout the not err therein."

However, some people are not interested in a theme like this. But why should we who have immortal souls awaiting an eternal destiny, be indifferent to the Revelations of God touching the PLAN, PRINCI-PLES and PROCESS of Salvation which delivers from ALL Sin, and establishes in ALL Righteousness, the only preparation by which we may escape Hell, and gain Heaven through the Eternal ages?

We have received several Testimonials from able ministers highly recommending this Book. We give one as follows: "I desire to say that too much cannot be said in favor of Preacher ought to have this Book in his possession. It will be a treasure-mine, a pot of fresh oil to your ministry. It is also good for the layman, but the minister cannot be without it. It is new; it is fresh; it is inspiring." (Signed) J. E. Redmon, Dist. Supt. Nazarene Church, Tampa, Fla.

CASTROVILLE, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1930

Rain, rain, more rain and then some, News very nearly all washed out.

Messrs. Louis Fuos and George Etter were San Antonio business visitors Thursday.

We learn that Mrs. Alfred O. Hutzler who was taken to San Antonio about a week ago for medical treatment was operated at the Santa Rosa Infirmary Friday morning and was getting along as well as can be expected. We join the many friends of the lady in wishing her a speedy and permanent recovery.

Henry Vonlie, A. S. Jungman, Ed. Tschirhart, Sr., Jos. Liebert and probably others, whose names we failed to get, attended the Old Freighters meeting at San Antonio Sunday.

The General (annual) Meeting of the Castroville Mutual Fire Association, which was to be held Sunday afternoon, June 15, was rained out.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Vollmer of San Antonio visited Mrs. M. A. Groff Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Vonlie attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Louis Ahrens Haas, the only step-sister of Mrs. Vonlie, who had died at her home at San Antonio Saturday afternoon and was laid to rest at San Fernando Cemetery Monday morning. Mrs. Ahrens was born at Castroville sixty-nine years ago and counts her relatives and friends here by scores.

RESERVE POWER BIG RELIABILITY FACTOR.

The reserve power provided by a big rugged V-type engine of simple design which develops a full 85 horsepower at only 3,200 revolutions per minute, is largely responsible for the two outstanding characteristics of the new Oakland Eight—performance and reliability.

Naturally the public is more familiar with the Oakland's feats of performance because those achievements could be demonstrated immediately after its introduction. But it is only now, after more than five months of owner service that the exceptional reliability of the Oakland is becoming apparent. Long ago the Oakland engineers knew the reliability of the new Eight and so did the engineers of General Motors. They road tested 50 complete cars a distance of nearly one million miles before giving the final production okay.

The big Oakland engine provides a power-to-weight ratio said to be exceeded only in special racing cars. It develops one horsepower to each 37 pounds of car weight—a ratio that enables the car always to remain bigger than its job.

The massive mono-block with crankcase and both banks of cylinders formed in one rigid casting; the oversize main bearings which carry the heavy crankshaft; so sturdy that it remains free from vibration throughout its entire range of engine speed; the full pressure lubrication to every vital point—all these factors contribute toward the reliability of the Oakland Eight.

But of equal importance is its "square" ratio of bore to stroke. The stroke of 3 3/8 inches is less than the diameter of the bore and from one to two inches shorter than the stroke of many automobile engines.

This exceptionally short stroke confers reliability in two different ways. In the first place it reduces to a minimum the "orbit" of the moving parts within the engine and consequently lessens the internal stresses which they create. This might be illustrated by swinging a weight on the end of a cord. A considerable pull is felt when the weight is swung at the full length of the cord. But as the cord is shortened the pull progressively becomes less.

In the second place the short piston travel appreciably reduces the rate of wear on pistons and cylinders. The piston of the average American automobile travels up and down in its cylinder a distance of about 2,400 course of a 12,000 mile year of driving the Oakland piston travels approximately 1,782 feet per mile. During the core of a 12,000 mile year of driving the Oakland piston travels approximately 1,400 fewer miles in its cylinder than does an average piston. Inasmuch as the wear on pistons and cylinders is in direct proportion to piston travel, the Oakland gains considerably in reliability from this one feature.

Additional reliability factors are found in the big self-adjusting clutch which smoothly transmits the overlapping power impulses through a balanced drive shaft to an oversized rear axle.

We join in sympathy with the bereaved and grief-stricken ones. May she rest in peace.

Chas. Groff of San Antonio paid a short visit to his mother Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. L. Halbardier visited relatives and friends at Mac Dona Sunday.

Misses Laura Brieden and Babe Halbardier were San Antonio visitors Saturday. They were accompanied home by Miss Mamie Halbardier, who spent Father's Day with her parents.

Mesdames Eug. Jungman, Sr., Aug. Koenig and Albert Beck spent Monday here.

Misses Mamie Halbardier, Allene Hans, Medora and Lenora Tschirhart from San Antonio were here for the card and bunco party Wednesday night.

Mr. Herbert Holzhaus was a San Antonio visitor Tuesday.

Mr. Ralph de Montel spent the last week-end here visiting relatives on the de Montel ranch above Castroville.

Mr. Thomas Hans from San Antonio spent Sunday and Monday here.

Mr. Aug. Tschirhart, Sr., made a flying trip to San Antonio Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finger and family from D'Hanis were visiting here Sunday evening.

All these elements of strength and reliability are safeguarded during the building of the car by approximately 25,000 separate inspections which hold each part to extremely fine limits of precision. And in the field these same elements are preserved by a nation-wide service organization specially trained by Oakland service experts and using specially-designed Oakland service tools built to the specifications of the men who built the car.

SOCIAL TRENDS.

Ordinarily, with so much political activity to distract them, editors would not devote much either of time or space to consideration of purely social problems. Conditions are not ordinary within the social realm, however, and many editors frankly confess their alarm.

Divorce and juvenile delinquency paint a picture before which many Texas editors stand aghast.

Together they comprise the most disturbing of all the problems placed before the people for solution.

Nevada has become a third rate factor in divorce comparisons with Texas. Harris and Galveston counties alone sever more nuptial knots than does Reno, the one-time American divorce capital. Texas, fifth among the states in population, holds an unchallenged first place in the divorce census.

States with divorce laws no less liberal than those of Texas rank far below this state in the ratio of divorces to population. Obviously, then, the law can not be charged with responsibility for the condition.

There is but one explanation, and it is not pleasant to contemplate. The plain, unvarnished truth is that Texas people are more tolerant, of, and friendly to, divorce than the people of other states.

In one Texas county there is recorded an instance where one girl, scarcely out of her "teens," has been thrice divorced and is now living with a fourth husband.

Court records in the same county reveal that another woman three times completed the cycle of marriage, divorce and remarriage; and each time to one and the same man!

Especially significant is the fact that divorces tend to "run" in families. That "divorce history" which began when a mother divorced her husband is in point. In due course of time a married son divorced his wife, and two married daughters divorced their husbands.

Delinquent children present a disturbing problem of proportions which challenge immediate attention. In the substantial majority of cases it is notable that juvenile delinquents are the children of divorced parents.

Closely allied to the divorce evil is that of juvenile delinquency.

Very obviously these two problems—divorce and juvenile delinquency—are not going to solve themselves.

Texas may glory in her high standing among the states with reference to population and agricultural and industrial production; but to rank high in divorce and juvenile delinquency is a questionable distinction. It is a distinction which Texas does not desire.

The next governor, whoever he may be, immediately upon inauguration should appoint a commission to study these two social problems and determine upon corrective measures. That done, no time should be lost in presenting their recommendations to the electorate.—The Editorial Digest.

INDUSTRIAL TEXAS.

More and more, Texas editors provide proof that the state is becoming industrial minded.

It is the logical and natural result of facts which are reported in and emphasized by the 1930 census. Especially significant, however, are the industrial surveys, whether or not they be called by that name, which are featured in practically every Texas newspaper.

Texas editors are uncovering industrial opportunities and exposing them to the world. They are painting attractive pictures of prosperous Texas industries. In one way or another, they are all insisting that the state begin to realize upon the superior industrial advantages which are concentrated within the Lone Star Empire.

Bearing in mind the fact that editors faithfully reflect the state of public mind, no man need be a prophet to read the handwriting on the wall.

The new Texas will be an industrial Texas, with flourishing industries located in a thousand thriving villages and cities. Payrolls will contribute to prosperity, and prosperity will contribute to happiness and contentment.

Towns and cities which desire to play a part in the future picture of prosperity and contentment, must begin now to look to their industrial opportunities. For the price of progress is eternal watchfulness.—The Editorial Digest.

A SHOWER.

On Tuesday, June 17, 1930, Miss Mae Carle was honored with a shower at the home of Mrs. Matt Koch. Seventy-seven were registered on the "Bride's Book," at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Carle entered the room with her escorts little Misses Mary Bell Carle and Kathryn Holiday, dressed in little white ruffled dresses. While the bride-to-be entered, the wedding march was played until she was seated in the bride's chair, which was arranged for her. On each side of the bride's chair small blue stolls were arranged for the escorts.

A kitchen guessing contest took place immediately after the bride entered. A toast to Mae was read by Miss Viola Koch.

TO MAE.

Look at the crowd that's gathered today!

What is the reason, I ask if I may? Oh! Yes it's a shower for Mae, our friend.

Just look at the "raindrops" each one has sent.

All came here with radiant faces, Eagerly awaiting to take their places.

Excitement seems to reign supreme.

Oh! Hurry up, let the "drops" be seen.

But before we start, let us not forget We haven't offered our good wishes yet.

May your wedded life, always happy be,

May your trouble seem too small to see.

Mary had a little lamb or so the story goes.

Now May has got herself a man, and that's better as every girl knows.

The lamb followed Mary wherever she went

Mild and gentle did always appear.

Now, may Thomas thru life be very content

Te be led by Mae from year to year.

But lamb-like qualities in a husband, we fear,

Would be difficult to find.

From most wives we usually hear

That more like the goats are man-kind.

Being mild and gentle is the woman's lot.

A man must think he is "king."

His bread and meat must always be hot.

He must never lack for a thing.

But laying all jokes aside,

A wedding is a serious occasion.

And the best wish we can make for any bride,

Is a home with love for its foundation.

Dear Mae, when the years have passed away,

And time has silvered your hair,

May you be as happy in that far day

As now, when life seems so fair.

The bride-elect was surprised when little Miss Louise Koch entered, all in blue, carrying a bride's bouquet, which was given to Mae. Little Misses Charlotte Boog and Kathleen Rohrbach, also dressed in blue, followed, pushing a little blue cart all filled with useful and beautiful gifts for the bride-to-be. After all the gifts were admired by the guests, brick ice cream in pink and white with light and dark cake was served with little cups of mints as plate favors with an owl place card in a folder form hand-trimmed by Mrs. F. G. Muennink and Miss Corine Koch with "who-who" on the outside of the owl. The guests found the name of Mae Carle and Thomas Koch in the inside of the folders giving away the name of the bride and groom. Most of the guests were Mesdames Louis Carle, Jr., Matt Koch, Alfred Rohrbach and Miss Viola Koch.

BRIDGE CLUB.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent by members of the club and a number of guests with Mrs. Hy. Bury at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lena Langfeld on Wednesday of last week. Vari-colored cosmos and roses were charmingly used in the decoration of the bridge rooms.

At the close of the games Mrs. Frank Kimmerly received a bottle of bath salts for high guest prize, Miss Grace Zinsmeyer a bath mat for high club prize and Mrs. John Rieber was awarded a string of beads for low. The consolation prize was given to Mrs. A. M. Rath.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames John Rieber, E. A. Rothe, A. M. Rath, John Zinsmeyer, M. J. Finger, Ed. Finger, Misses Cornelia Koch, Grace Zinsmeyer, Agnes Rothe, Dora Saathoff and Carrie Langfeld and guests: Mrs. Fred Rock, Mrs. Frank Kimmerly, Mrs. Chas. Rohrbach, Mrs. Louis Carle, Jr. Mrs. Fred. Rock and Mrs. Joe Williams were voted in as new members of the club.

ST. ANTHONY COMMUNITY CLUB.

The hostess for this month announced the Free Will Social to be held on June 29 at the Parish Hall. A one act play and several other

QUIHI NOTES.

"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done in charity" 1 Cor. 16: 13 and 14.

At 10 o'clock Sunday morning divine service will be held in St. John's Lutheran church of New Fountain. All are cordially invited to this and all services in this church.

Because of the rainy weather and the bad roads the Luther League program which was to be rendered last Sunday night was postponed and will be given in Bethlehem Lutheran church Sunday night, June 22, at 8 o'clock. This is a fine program of musical, literary and oratorical numbers. All are cordially invited to come and enjoy all that this good program affords.

All arrangements for a splendid 4th of July celebration in Boehle's Grove at Quihi are under way. The program will be rendered at 2 o'clock P. M. and has a number of fine musical and literary numbers to which will be added two addresses, the one in the English and the other in the German tongue. Games and plays for prizes will be provided for the boys and girls, and a refreshment stand with ice cream, cold drinks and other good things will also be on the grounds. For all who enjoy barbecued meat, a goodly supply of this delicious meat with pickles and bread will be provided on the grounds by an expert chef. The committee in charge of this celebration cordially invite all who can to come to the grounds Wednesday morning, July 2, as early as possible with tools and help in cleaning up the grounds and put them in condition for the celebration.

STAGE SHOWS AT THE TEXAS.

The Texas Theatre in San Antonio will resume its former policy of presenting stage shows each week in addition to the regular feature picture, Friday, June 20.

"Vic" Insurino, formerly conductor of the Stage Band, will return in the same capacity. "Vic," who has been appearing with Paul Ash at the Paramount Theatre in New York, has many new ideas and a real treat is in store for his many friends.

The first stage production in the new group is "Valentines on Parade." This is an exquisite bit of stage craft, novel in setting and unique in lighting that forms a charming background for Helen Yoras and Virginia Johnson, silver-throated song team, the intricate dance steps of Kendall Capps and the amazingly funny antics of Bobby Pinkus, both of whom have been featured in legitimate stage shows. The Texas Rockets, a group of clever and beautiful dancers, lend just the proper touch to balance the entertainment with cleverly executed dance ensembles.

Not only has "Vic" returned but that favorite of all music lovers, Ernest Hauser, once more waves the baton over the Texas Grand Orchestra. Mr. Hauser's overture for the week is especially appropriate and should be well received.

At the Mighty Organ Leo Weber goes into his second big week. He is becoming more popular at every performance, and his solo for the week will add many new friends to his already growing legion of admirers.

On the screen Charles "Buddy" Rogers' latest starring picture, "Safety in Numbers," the first of a series of musical comedy pictures which Rogers will make for Paramount, will be presented. In this latest Paramount picture Rogers has the distinction of playing opposite five leading ladies all picked for their beauty and ability to sing. These five charmers who play important roles in Buddy's education, romantic and otherwise, are Kathryn Crawford, Josephine Dunn, Carole Lombard, Geneva Mitchell and Virginia Bruce.

Other entertaining screen features and Paramount Sound News round out the greatest program of sheer entertainment that the Texas Theatre has presented in months.

J. P. Ephraim and I. E. Aten were over from D'Hanis Tuesday evening for the Chapter meeting.

"I CANNOT PRAISE THIS KONJOLA TOO STRONGLY."

Says Wichita Lady Suffered for 12 Years from Stomach Trouble.

MRS. DELLA SETTLE.

"I cannot praise this Konjola too strongly, because I tried many other medicines and treatments, but none gave the remarkable relief that Konjola did," said Mrs. Della Settle, 1719 Mildred Avenue, Wichita. "I just had to force myself to eat, and nearly everything I ate made me sick. I had cramping pains in my stomach and bowels until I could hardly endure them, and I simply felt miserable all the time."

"Finally I decided to put Konjola to the test. That proved to be a wise decision. Right from the start I noticed improvement. I now have a much better appetite, and meals are a pleasure as food digests without pains or misery in my stomach. My bowels are functioning as they should, and it is certainly a relief to be rid of that tired, worn-out feeling. I gladly indorse this splendid medicine that restored my health."

Konjola has become the most talked of medicine in America because it makes good. And Konjola makes good in the most stubborn cases when given a fair trial and from six to eight bottles are used.

Konjola is sold in Hondo, Texas, at W. H. Windrow's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.
